

School of the future

Behind me is our new school.
Will you go there with me today?

Probably yes.

I'm going inside. And you?

HAHAHA Ok! Good joke! You think that will not go inside??!!

We've made progress. It is already a class Level 3?

Probably yes. It does not matter. This is a guard robot?? He doesn't know where we are.

Hello You're from Class Level 3???

Yes or no??

Yes we are! But...

Yes, of course!!
Hmm... really... HIHIHI.

Girls, I know, you're not walking. But you go in quickly!! I see Professor!

What professor? It does not matter. He knows us! That's not good...

They ask him later. He lets us in. That's important.
